Comyno and SIX Strengthen Their Long-Standing Partnership with New Integration of CO:RE Platform via C-ONE Connectivity

11 December 2024, Frankfurt am Main/Zurich – The long-standing partnership between Comyno and SIX reaches a new milestone with the integration of SIX's CO:RE platform via Comyno's C-ONE Connectivity solution. This integration enhances connectivity options for market participants, providing seamless and efficient access to CO:RE and allowing for greater flexibility in managing Securities Finance- and OTC spot market related activities.

Frank Becker, COO and Head of Sales at Comyno, shared, “We’re delighted to take our long-standing partnership with SIX to the next level. Over the years, we have collaborated closely to address the evolving challenges in Securities Finance. The integration of CO:RE via C-ONE Connectivity for Securities Finance and OTC spot market transactions represents another step in enhancing operational efficiency and interoperability for our clients, ensuring they remain ahead in an increasingly complex landscape. With this capability, we are well-equipped to respond swiftly to both current and future changes on SIX’s side, providing clients with direct, tailored solutions for connecting to SIX’s CO:RE platform.”

Nerin Demir, Head of Repo and Collateral Management at SIX, added, “The partnership with Comyno has been a reliable and valuable asset for us over the years. We look forward to continuing this fruitful collaboration with Comyno as we expand our services and enhance connectivity in the market.”
